Upper Nile

Akobo

Pibor

ETHIOPIA

Akobo County WASH Baseline - Key Findings

Akobo County, Jonglei State, South Sudan

This factsheet provides an overview of key findings from the WASH baseline assessment.

Findings are based on data collected from 624 households, between January and February 2016, and can be generalised to the entire county population with 90% confidence and 5% margin of error.

Access to safe drinking water

Overall, nearly 78% of households across Akobo County have access to a safe source of drinking water.

Acess to safe or unsafe sources, by payam

Safe		Safe	% households	Unsafe
Akobo East	Bilkey	88%		12%
	Dengjok	38%		62%
	Gakdong	65%		35%
	Nyandit	22%	\	78%
Akobo West	Barmach	100%	•	0%
	Buong	100%	•	0%
	Diror	78%		22%
	Walgak	100%	•	0%

Households treating unsafe drinking water

Households reporting access to latrines

Nyirol

Jonglei

Ayod

Duk

West:

9%

Yes

East:

Yes

Uror

Type of water source

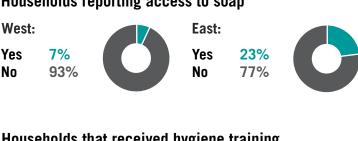

22% No 91% No 78%

Quantity of water accessed, by payam

		Litres / person / day	Minimum standard met? (min.15L / person / day)
	Bilkey	10.80L	No
Eas	Dengjok	10.46L	No
Akobo East	Gakdong	10.04L	No
₹	Nyandit	10.66L	No
st	Barmach	10.14L	No
West	Buong	9.76L	No
Akobo	Diror	8.85L	No
¥	Walgak	9.86L	No

Households reporting access to soap

Households that received hygiene training

