

Syrian Crisis Response

Baseline Factsheet: Al-Kfarat Municipality

Governorate: Irbid

JESSRP Treatment / Control*: Control

% of Syrian households assessed: 7%

Average household size: 5.6

Dependency ratio: 0.83

% female headed household: 9%

* Jordan Emergency Services and Social Resilience Project (JESSRP)
treatment: municipality where the World Bank has planned municipal service interventions,
control: municipality where World Bank does not have planned municipal service interventions.

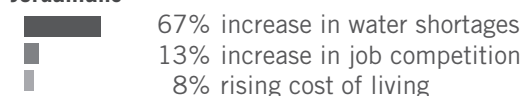

Information collected from 385 households (27 Syrian, 353 Jordanian, 5 other nationality) living in Al-Kfarat municipality.

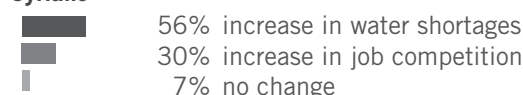

Perception of change in the community

Three most prominent changes observed since living in the community:

Jordanians

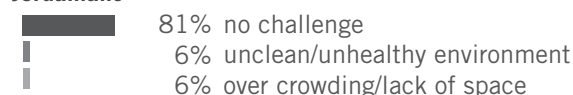

Syrians

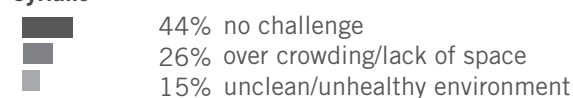

Housing

Three most prominent challenges faced in relation to current housing situation:

Jordanians

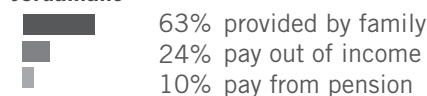

Syrians

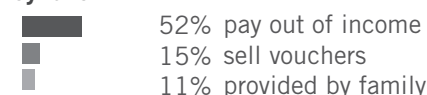

Three most common ways households cover the cost of housing:

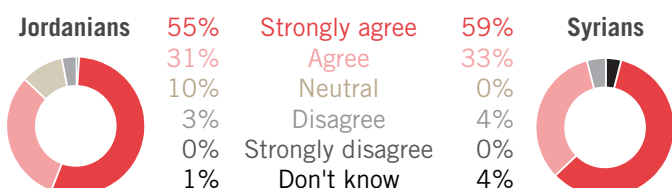

Jordanians

Syrians

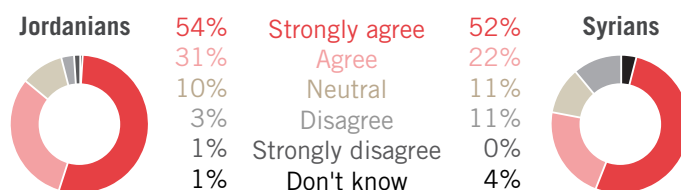

Increased housing prices have led to discontent within your community:

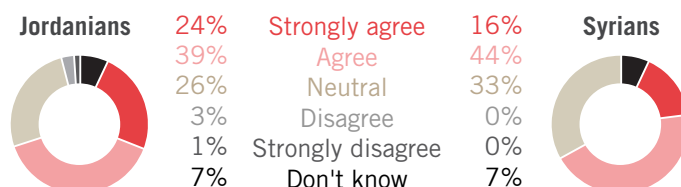

Water

Water shortages have led to discontent within your community:

Sanitation

Sanitation issues have led to discontent within your community:

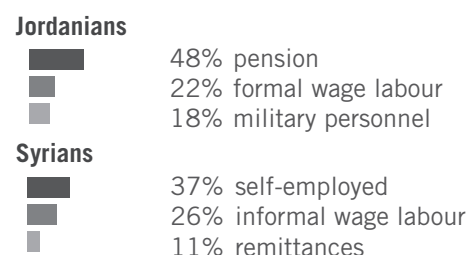

Livelihoods & Employment

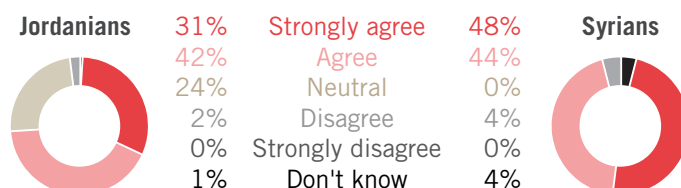

% of households with individuals seeking employment:

Jordanians: 33% Syrians: 33%

Three most prominent sources of income:

The current employment situation has led to discontent within your community:

Syrian Crisis Response

Baseline Factsheet: Al-Sho'aleh Municipality

Governorate: Irbid

JESSRP Treatment / Control*: Treatment

% of Syrian households assessed: 5%

Average household size: 6

Dependency ratio: 0.81

% female headed household: 7%

* Jordan Emergency Services and Social Resilience Project (JESSRP)
treatment: municipality where the World Bank has planned municipal service interventions,
control: municipality where World Bank does not have planned municipal service interventions.

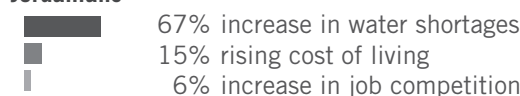

Information collected from 386 households (20 Syrian, 362 Jordanian, 3 other nationality) living in Al-Sho'aleh municipality.

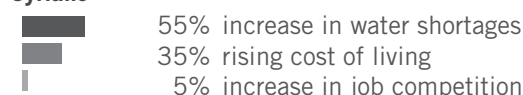

Perception of change in the community

Three most prominent changes observed since living in the community:

Jordanians

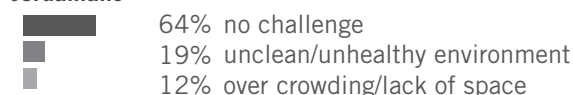

Syrians

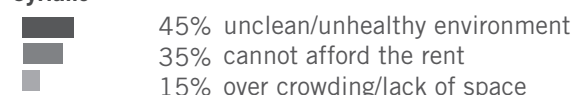

Housing

Three most prominent challenges faced in relation to current housing situation:

Jordanians

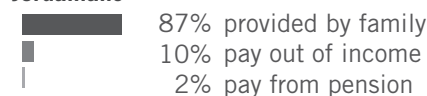

Syrians

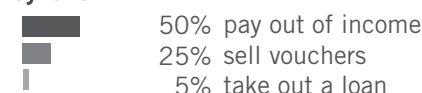

Three most common ways households cover the cost of housing:

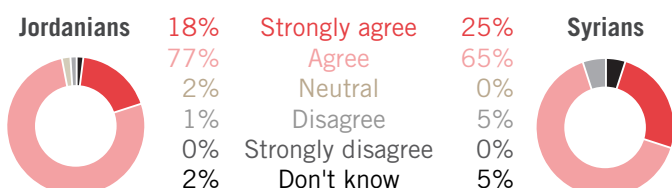

Jordanians

Syrians

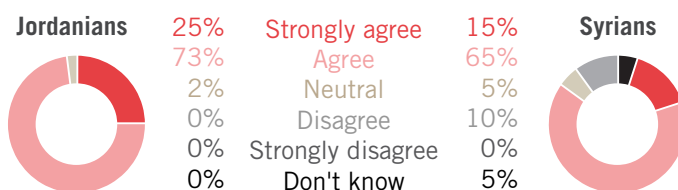

Increased housing prices have led to discontent within your community:

Water

Water shortages have led to discontent within your community:

Sanitation

Sanitation issues have led to discontent within your community:

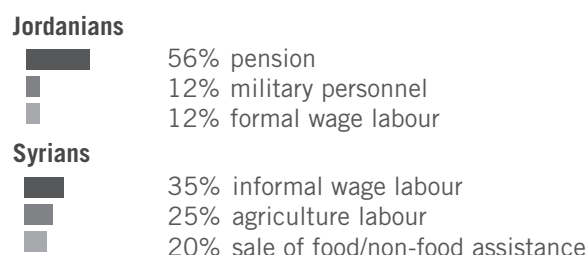

Livelihoods & Employment

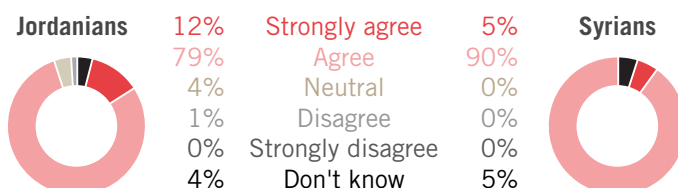

% of households with individuals seeking employment:

Jordanians: 39% Syrians: 50%

Three most prominent sources of income:

The current employment situation has led to discontent within your community:

Syrian Crisis Response

Baseline Factsheet: Al-Yarmook Al-Jadeedah Municipality

Governorate: Irbid

JESSRP Treatment / Control*: Control

% of Syrian households assessed: 8%

Average household size: 5.6

Dependency ratio: 0.85

% female headed household: 11%

* Jordan Emergency Services and Social Resilience Project (JESSRP)
treatment: municipality where the World Bank has planned municipal service interventions,
control: municipality where World Bank does not have planned municipal service interventions.

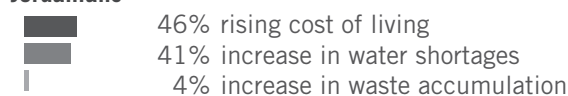

Information collected from 385 households (30 Syrian, 352 Jordanian, 3 other nationality) living in Al-Yarmook Al-Jadeedah municipality.

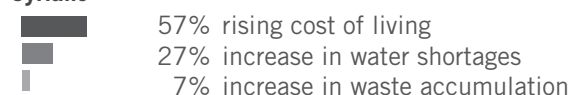

Perception of change in the community

Three most prominent changes observed since living in the community:

Jordanians

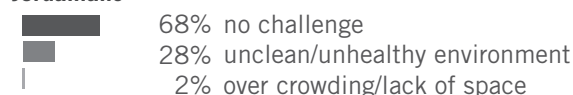

Syrians

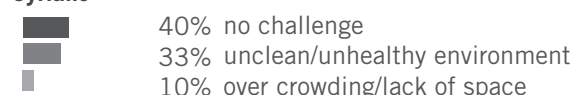

Housing

Three most prominent challenges faced in relation to current housing situation:

Jordanians

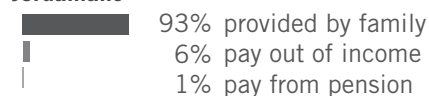

Syrians

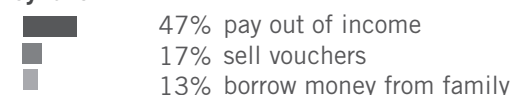

Three most common ways households cover the cost of housing:

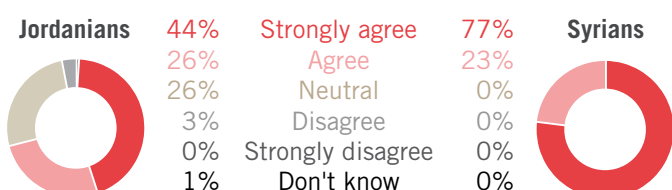

Jordanians

Syrians

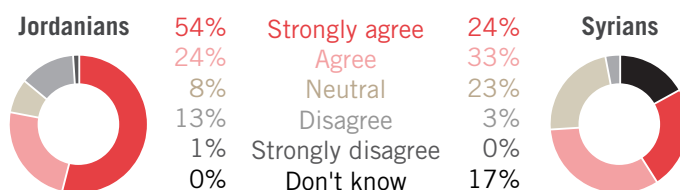

Increased housing prices have led to discontent within your community:

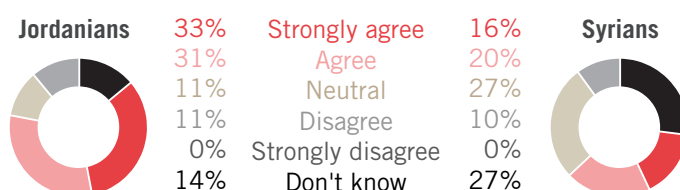

Water

Water shortages have led to discontent within your community:

Sanitation

Sanitation issues have led to discontent within your community:

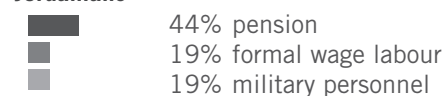

Livelihoods & Employment

% of households with individuals seeking employment:

Jordanians: 29% Syrians: 40%

Three most prominent sources of income:

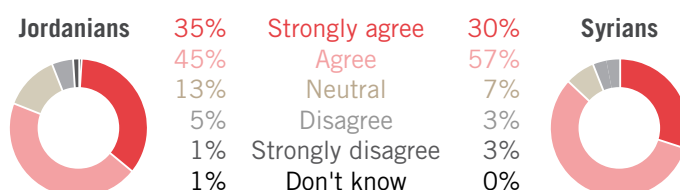

Jordanians

Syrians

The current employment situation has led to discontent within your community:

Syrian Crisis Response

Baseline Factsheet: Al-Za'atri and Al-Mansheah Municipality

Governorate: Al Mafrq

JESSRP Treatment / Control*: Treatment

% of Syrian households assessed: 32%

Average household size: 6.4

Dependency ratio: 1.17

% female headed household: 16%

* Jordan Emergency Services and Social Resilience Project (JESSRP)
treatment: municipality where the World Bank has planned municipal service interventions,
control: municipality where World Bank does not have planned municipal service interventions.

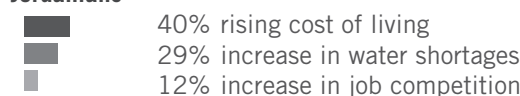

Information collected from 385 households (124 Syrian, 259 Jordanian, 2 other nationality) living in Al-Za'atri and Al-Mansheah municipality.

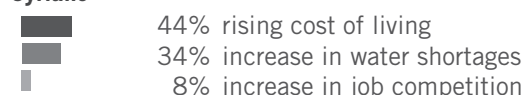

Perception of change in the community

Three most prominent changes observed since living in the community:

Jordanians

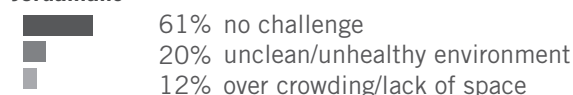

Syrians

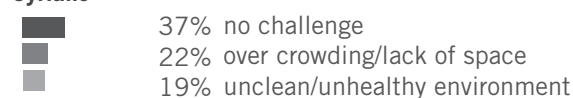

Housing

Three most prominent challenges faced in relation to current housing situation:

Jordanians

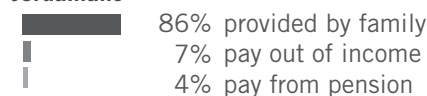

Syrians

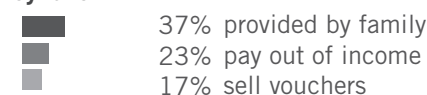

Three most common ways households cover the cost of housing:

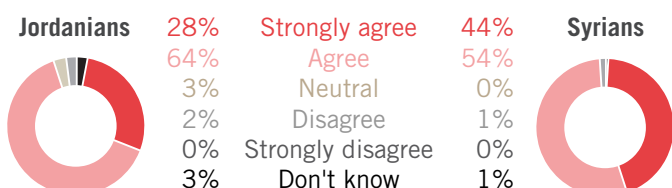

Jordanians

Syrians

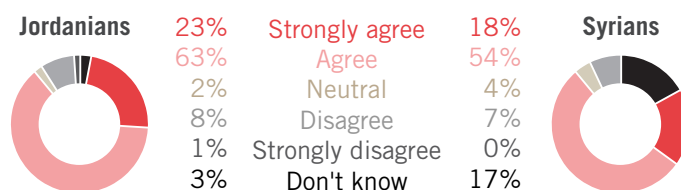

Increased housing prices have led to discontent within your community:

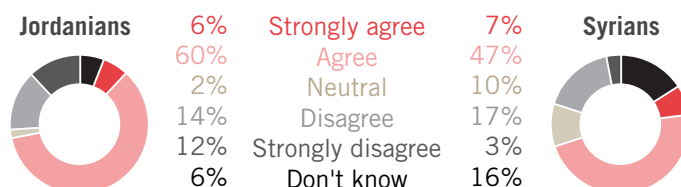

Water

Water shortages have led to discontent within your community:

Sanitation

Sanitation issues have led to discontent within your community:

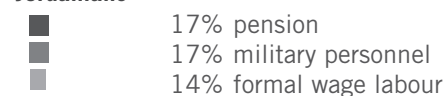

Livelihoods & Employment

% of households with individuals seeking employment:

Jordanians: 36% Syrians: 36%

Three most prominent sources of income:

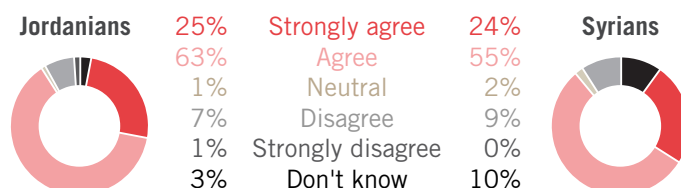

Jordanians

Syrians

The current employment situation has led to discontent within your community:

Syrian Crisis Response

Baseline Factsheet: Bal'ama Al-Jadeedah Municipality

Governorate: Al Mafraq

JESSRP Treatment / Control*: Treatment

% of Syrian households assessed: 9%

Average household size: 6

Dependency ratio: 0.91

% female headed household: 8%

* Jordan Emergency Services and Social Resilience Project (JESSRP)
treatment: municipality where the World Bank has planned municipal service interventions,
control: municipality where World Bank does not have planned municipal service interventions.

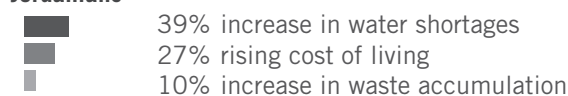

Information collected from 385 households (33 Syrian, 346 Jordanian, 6 other nationality) living in Bal'ama Al-Jadeedah municipality.

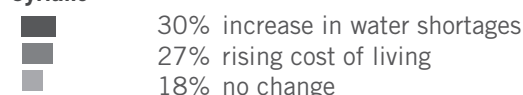

Perception of change in the community

Three most prominent changes observed since living in the community:

Jordanians

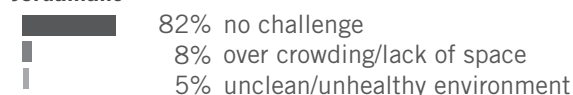

Syrians

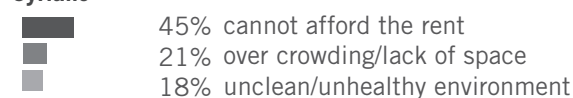

Housing

Three most prominent challenges faced in relation to current housing situation:

Jordanians

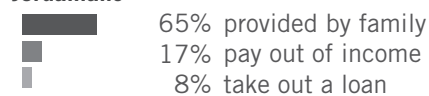

Syrians

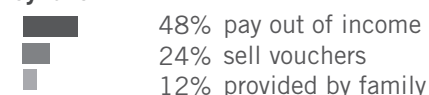

Three most common ways households cover the cost of housing:

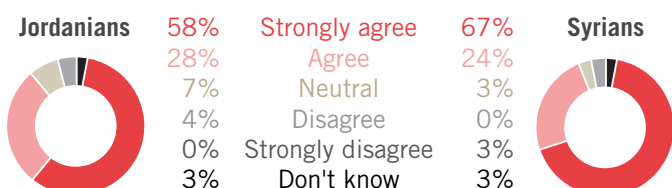

Jordanians

Syrians

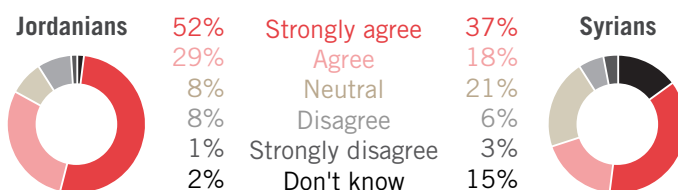

Increased housing prices have led to discontent within your community:

Water

Water shortages have led to discontent within your community:

Sanitation

Sanitation issues have led to discontent within your community:

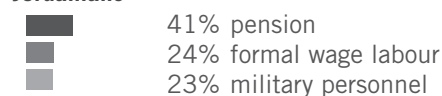

Livelihoods & Employment

% of households with individuals seeking employment:

Jordanians: 35% Syrians: 39%

Three most prominent sources of income:

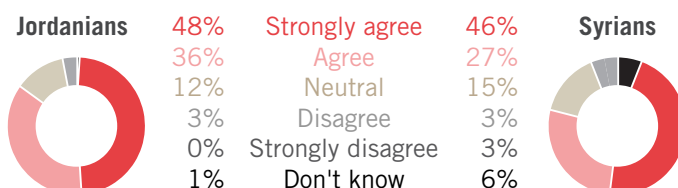

Jordanians

Syrians

The current employment situation has led to discontent within your community:

Syrian Crisis Response

Baseline Factsheet: Gharb Irbid Municipality

Governorate: Irbid

JESSRP Treatment / Control*: Treatment

% of Syrian households assessed: 7%

Average household size: 5.5

Dependency ratio: 0.89

% female headed household: 12%

* Jordan Emergency Services and Social Resilience Project (JESSRP)
treatment: municipality where the World Bank has planned municipal service interventions,
control: municipality where World Bank does not have planned municipal service interventions.

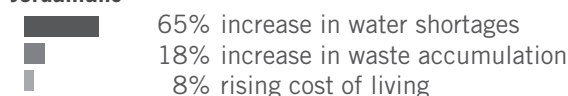

Information collected from 385 households (26 Syrian, 359 Jordanian, 0 other nationality) living in Gharb Irbid municipality.

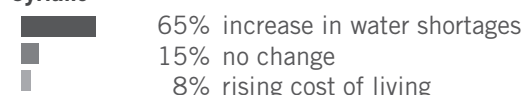

Perception of change in the community

Three most prominent changes observed since living in the community:

Jordanians

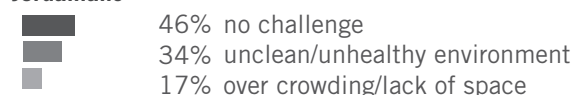

Syrians

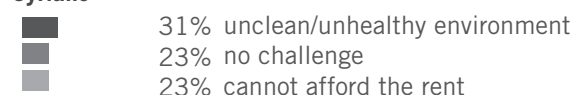

Housing

Three most prominent challenges faced in relation to current housing situation:

Jordanians

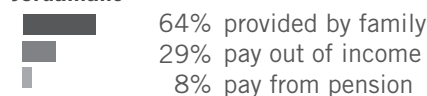

Syrians

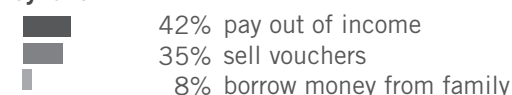

Three most common ways households cover the cost of housing:

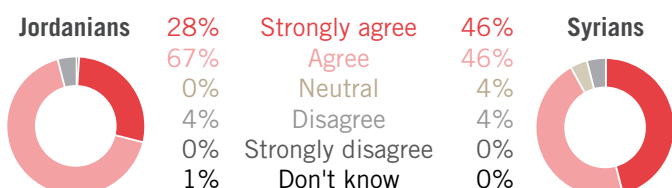

Jordanians

Syrians

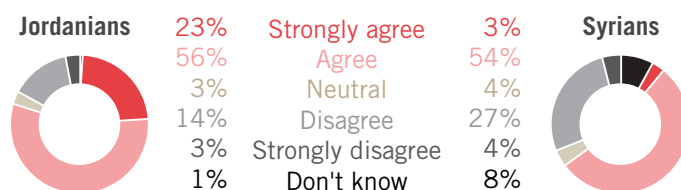

Increased housing prices have led to discontent within your community:

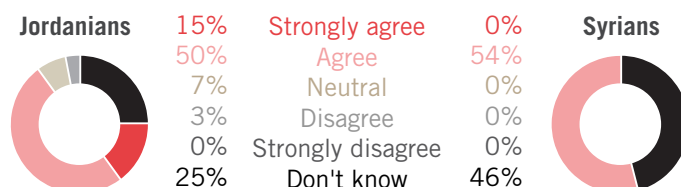

Water

Water shortages have led to discontent within your community:

Sanitation

Sanitation issues have led to discontent within your community:

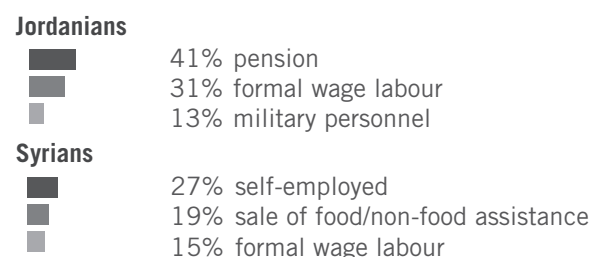

Livelihoods & Employment

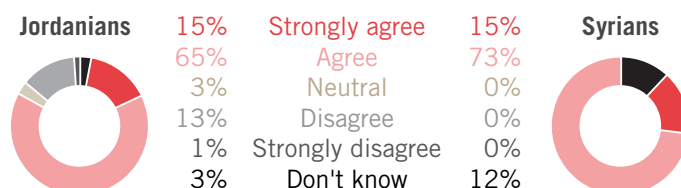

% of households with individuals seeking employment:

Jordanians: 18% Syrians: 19%

Three most prominent sources of income:

The current employment situation has led to discontent within your community:

Syrian Crisis Response

Baseline Factsheet: Hosh Al-Jadedah Municipality

Governorate: Al Mafrq

JESSRP Treatment / Control*: Control

% of Syrian households assessed: 13%

Average household size: 6.5

Dependency ratio: 1

% female headed household: 8%

* Jordan Emergency Services and Social Resilience Project (JESSRP)
treatment: municipality where the World Bank has planned municipal service interventions,
control: municipality where World Bank does not have planned municipal service interventions.

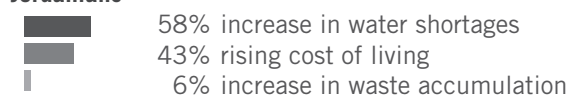

Information collected from 385 households (51 Syrian, 331 Jordanian, 4 other nationality) living in Hosh Al-Jadedah municipality.

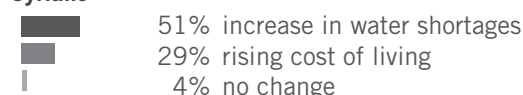

Perception of change in the community

Three most prominent changes observed since living in the community:

Jordanians

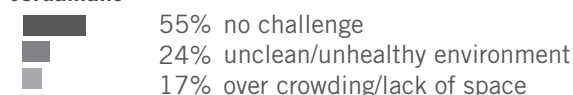

Syrians

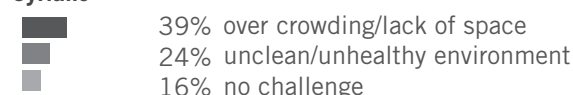

Housing

Three most prominent challenges faced in relation to current housing situation:

Jordanians

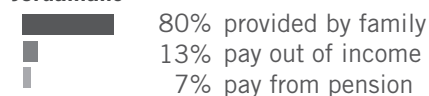

Syrians

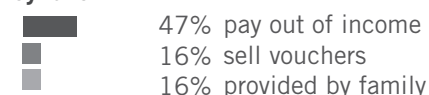

Three most common ways households cover the cost of housing:

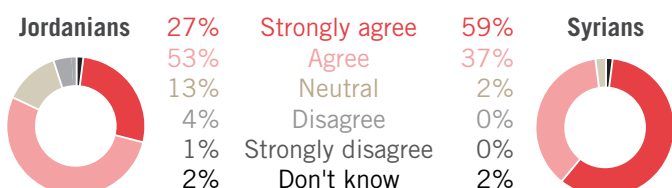

Jordanians

Syrians

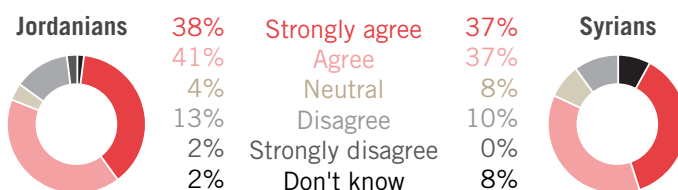

Increased housing prices have led to discontent within your community:

Water

Water shortages have led to discontent within your community:

Sanitation

Sanitation issues have led to discontent within your community:

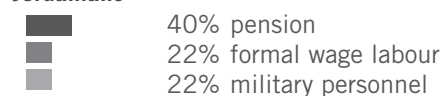

Livelihoods & Employment

% of households with individuals seeking employment:

Jordanians: 19% Syrians: 29%

Three most prominent sources of income:

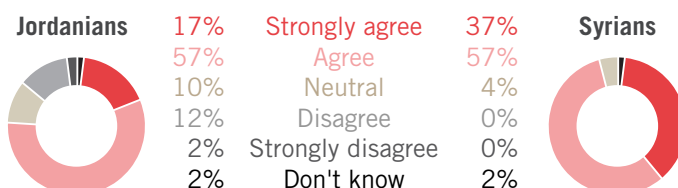

Jordanians

Syrians

The current employment situation has led to discontent within your community:

Syrian Crisis Response

Baseline Factsheet: Irbid Al-Kubra Municipality

Governorate: Irbid

JESSRP Treatment / Control*: Treatment

% of Syrian households assessed: 14%

Average household size: 5.3

Dependency ratio: 0.78

% female headed household: 11%

* Jordan Emergency Services and Social Resilience Project (JESSRP)
treatment: municipality where the World Bank has planned municipal service interventions,
control: municipality where World Bank does not have planned municipal service interventions.

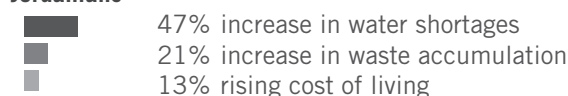

Information collected from 385 households (52 Syrian, 324 Jordanian, 9 other nationality) living in Irbid Al-Kubra municipality.

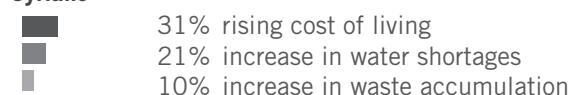

Perception of change in the community

Three most prominent changes observed since living in the community:

Jordanians

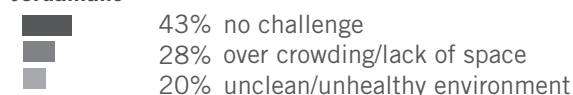

Syrians

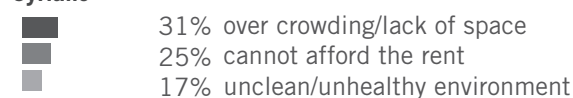

Housing

Three most prominent challenges faced in relation to current housing situation:

Jordanians

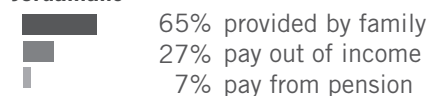

Syrians

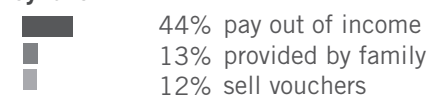

Three most common ways households cover the cost of housing:

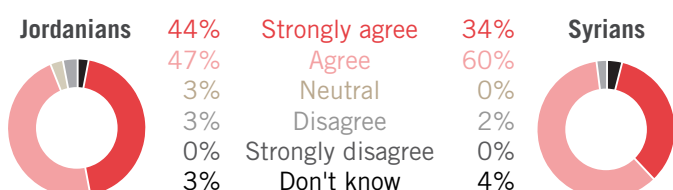

Jordanians

Syrians

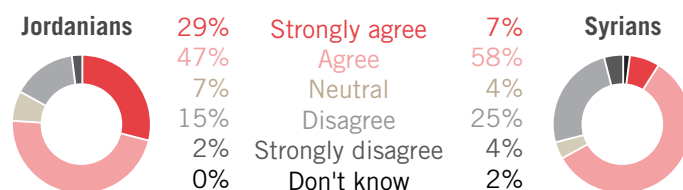

Increased housing prices have led to discontent within your community:

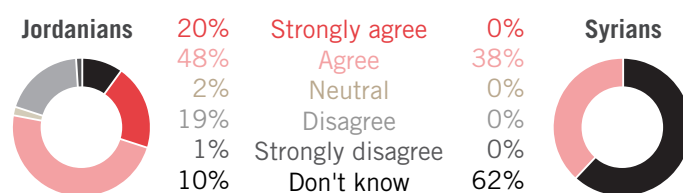

Water

Water shortages have led to discontent within your community:

Sanitation

Sanitation issues have led to discontent within your community:

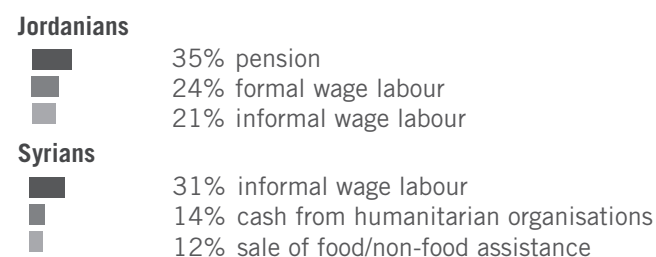

Livelihoods & Employment

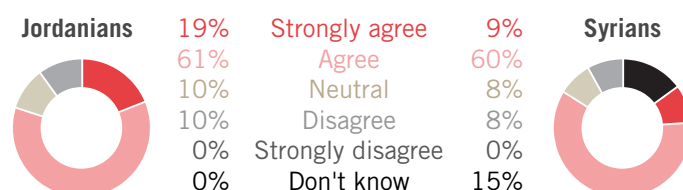

% of households with individuals seeking employment:

Jordanians: 25% Syrians: 31%

Three most prominent sources of income:

The current employment situation has led to discontent within your community:

Syrian Crisis Response

Baseline Factsheet: Mafraq Al-Kubra Municipality

Governorate: Al Mafraq

JESSRP Treatment / Control*: Treatment

% of Syrian households assessed: 49%

Average household size: 6.8

Dependency ratio: 1.17

% female headed household: 20%

* Jordan Emergency Services and Social Resilience Project (JESSRP)
treatment: municipality where the World Bank has planned municipal service interventions,
control: municipality where World Bank does not have planned municipal service interventions.

Information collected from 385 households (189 Syrian, 181 Jordanian, 15 other nationality) living in Mafraq Al-Kubra municipality.

Perception of change in the community

Three most prominent changes observed since living in the community:

Jordanians

- 35% increase in waste accumulation
- 22% increase in water shortages
- 18% rising cost of living

Syrians

- 32% increase in job competition
- 31% rising cost of living
- 23% increase in water shortages

Housing

Three most prominent challenges faced in relation to current housing situation:

Jordanians

- 85% no challenge
- 8% cannot afford the rent
- 4% unclean/unhealthy environment

Syrians

- 72% cannot afford the rent
- 13% over crowding/lack of space
- 11% no challenge

Three most common ways households cover the cost of housing:

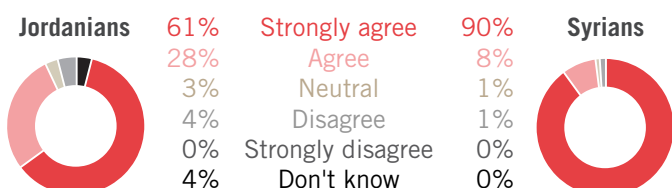

Jordanians

- 71% provided by family
- 23% pay out of income
- 3% pay from pension

Syrians

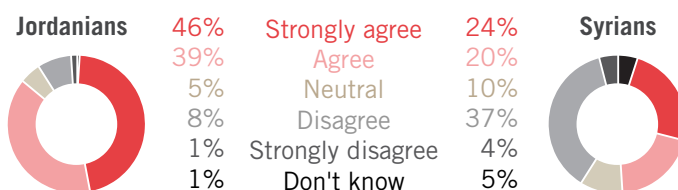

- 29% sell vouchers
- 27% pay out of income
- 20% borrow money from family

Increased housing prices have led to discontent within your community:

Water

Water shortages have led to discontent within your community:

Sanitation

Sanitation issues have led to discontent within your community:

Livelihoods & Employment

% of households with individuals seeking employment:

Jordanians: 32% Syrians: 49%

Three most prominent sources of income:

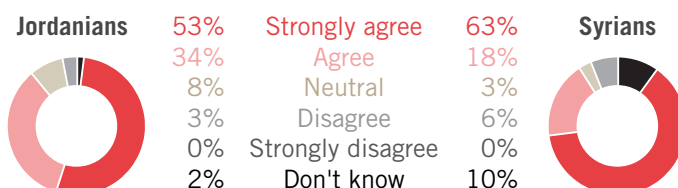

Jordanians

- 32% formal wage labour
- 26% pension
- 12% military personnel

Syrians

- 28% informal wage labour
- 24% sale of food/non-food assistance
- 19% formal/informal loans

The current employment situation has led to discontent within your community:

Syrian Crisis Response

Baseline Factsheet: Al-Mazar Al-Jadeedah Municipality

Governorate: Irbid

JESSRP Treatment / Control*: Control

% of Syrian households assessed: 3%

Average household size: 6.1

Dependency ratio: 0.75

% female headed household: 7%

* Jordan Emergency Services and Social Resilience Project (JESSRP)
treatment: municipality where the World Bank has planned municipal service interventions,
control: municipality where World Bank does not have planned municipal service interventions.

Information collected from 385 households (10 Syrian, 371 Jordanian, 4 other nationality) living in Al-Mazar Al-Jadeedah municipality.

Perception of change in the community

Three most prominent changes observed since living in the community:

Jordanians

- 36% increase in water shortages
- 21% increase in waste accumulation
- 19% rising cost of living

Syrians

- 40% increase in water shortages
- 20% rising cost of living
- 10% increase in waste accumulation

Housing

Three most prominent challenges faced in relation to current housing situation:

Jordanians

- 75% no challenge
- 14% unclean/unhealthy environment
- 8% over crowding/lack of space

Syrians

- 60% over crowding/lack of space
- 20% no challenge
- 10% cannot afford the rent

Three most common ways households cover the cost of housing:

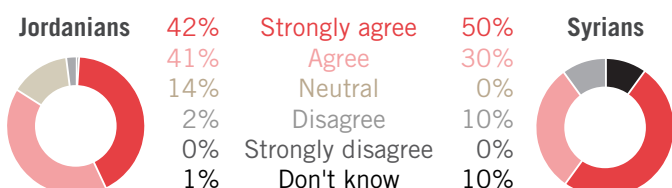

Jordanians

- 73% provided by family
- 14% pay out of pension
- 11% pay out of income

Syrians

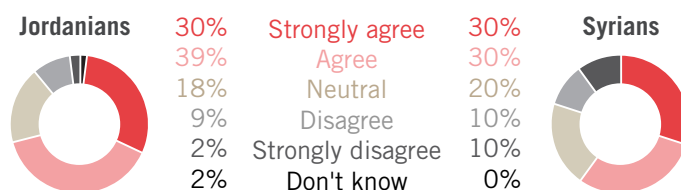

- 30% donations from NGOs
- 20% pay out of income
- 20% sell vouchers

Increased housing prices have led to discontent within your community:

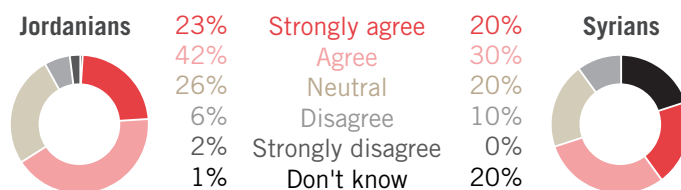

Water

Water shortages have led to discontent within your community:

Sanitation

Sanitation issues have led to discontent within your community:

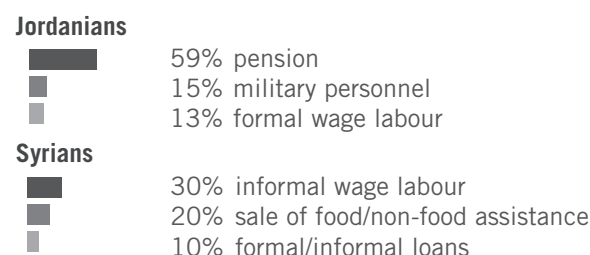

Livelihoods & Employment

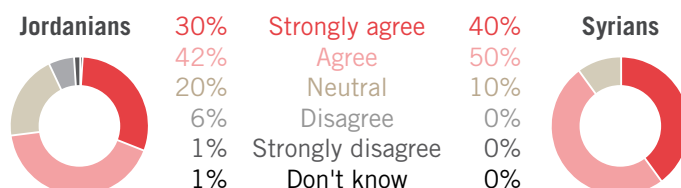

% of households with individuals seeking employment:

Jordanians: 30% Syrians: 30%

Three most prominent sources of income:

The current employment situation has led to discontent within your community:

Syrian Crisis Response

Baseline Factsheet: Al-Zarqa Municipality

Governorate: Zarqa

JESSRP Treatment / Control*: Control

% of Syrian households assessed: 12%

Average household size: 5.6

Dependency ratio: 0.97

% female headed household: 9%

* Jordan Emergency Services and Social Resilience Project (JESSRP)
treatment: municipality where the World Bank has planned municipal service interventions,
control: municipality where World Bank does not have planned municipal service interventions.

Information collected from 388 households (45 Syrian, 328 Jordanian, 15 other nationality) living in Al-Zarqa municipality.

Perception of change in the community

Three most prominent changes observed since living in the community:

Jordanians

- 32% increase in waste accumulation
- 19% rising cost of living
- 18% increase in water shortages

Syrians

- 33% increase in job competition
- 29% rising cost of living
- 18% increase in waste accumulation

Housing

Three most prominent challenges faced in relation to current housing situation:

Jordanians

- 72% no challenge
- 11% over crowding/lack of space
- 10% unclean/unhealthy environment

Syrians

- 64% cannot afford the rent
- 13% no challenge
- 11% over crowding/lack of space

Three most common ways households cover the cost of housing:

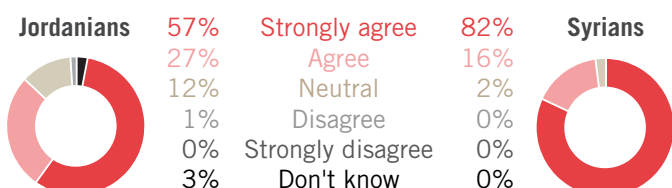

Jordanians

- 61% provided by family
- 30% pay out of income
- 3% pay from pension

Syrians

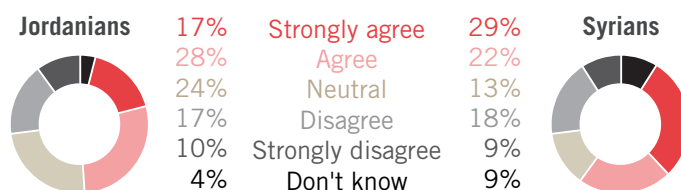

- 38% pay out of income
- 18% borrow money from family
- 18% sell vouchers

Increased housing prices have led to discontent within your community:

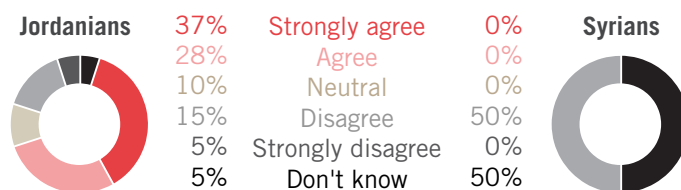

Water

Water shortages have led to discontent within your community:

Sanitation

Sanitation issues have led to discontent within your community:

Livelihoods & Employment

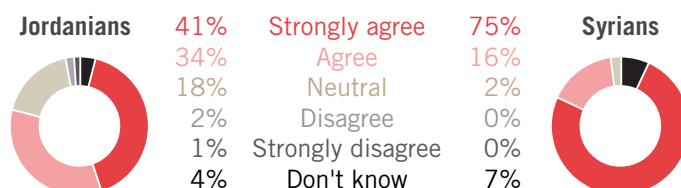

% of households with individuals seeking employment:

Jordanians: 28% Syrians: 51%

Three most prominent sources of income:

- Jordanians
 - 23% pension
 - 22% self-employed
 - 13% business owner
- Syrians
 - 31% informal wage labour
 - 27% formal/informal loans
 - 13% sale of food/non-food assistance

The current employment situation has led to discontent within your community:

Syrian Crisis Response

Baseline Factsheet: Al-Ramtha Al-Jadeedah Municipality

Governorate: Irbid

JESSRP Treatment / Control*: Treatment

% of Syrian households assessed: 21%

Average household size: 7.3

Dependency ratio: 1.04

% female headed household: 10%

* Jordan Emergency Services and Social Resilience Project (JESSRP)
treatment: municipality where the World Bank has planned municipal service interventions,
control: municipality where World Bank does not have planned municipal service interventions.

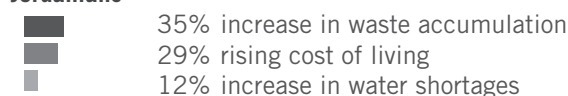

Information collected from 385 households (80 Syrian, 299 Jordanian, 6 other nationality) living in Al-Ramtha Al-Jadeedah municipality.

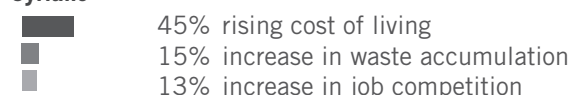

Perception of change in the community

Three most prominent changes observed since living in the community:

Jordanians

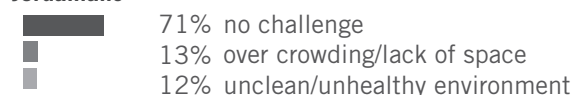

Syrians

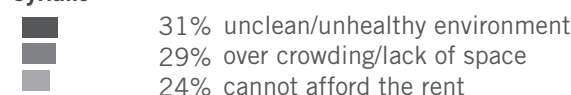

Housing

Three most prominent challenges faced in relation to current housing situation:

Jordanians

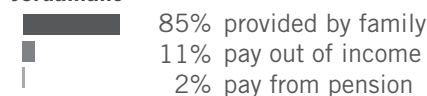

Syrians

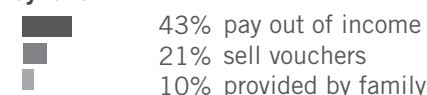

Three most common ways households cover the cost of housing:

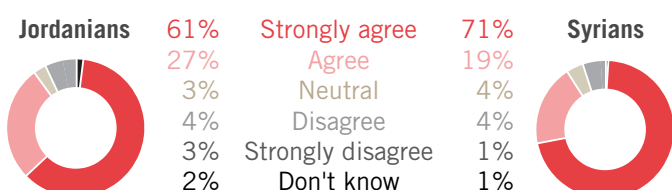

Jordanians

Syrians

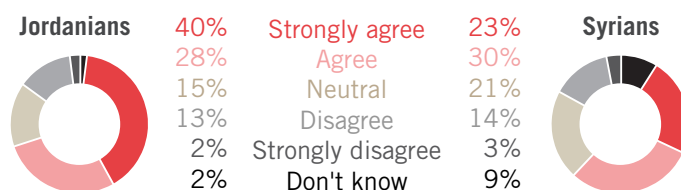

Increased housing prices have led to discontent within your community:

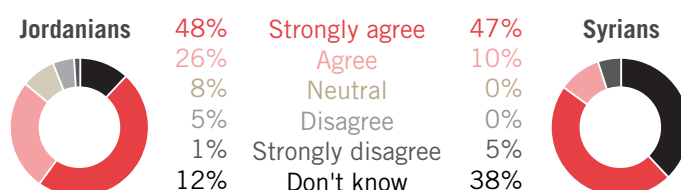

Water

Water shortages have led to discontent within your community:

Sanitation

Sanitation issues have led to discontent within your community:

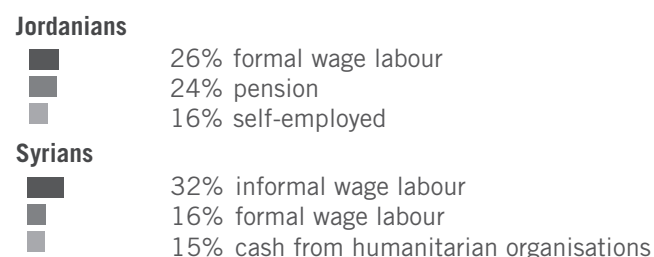

Livelihoods & Employment

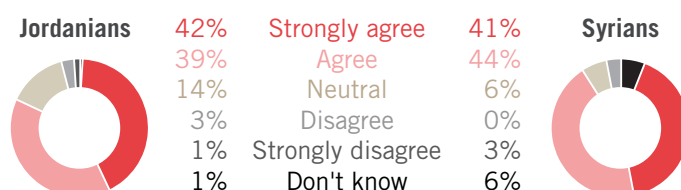

% of households with individuals seeking employment:

Jordanians: 28% Syrians: 40%

Three most prominent sources of income:

The current employment situation has led to discontent within your community:

Syrian Crisis Response

Baseline Factsheet: Rhab Al-Jadeedah Municipality

Governorate: Al Mafrq

JESSRP Treatment / Control*: Control

% of Syrian households assessed: 9%

Average household size: 5.8

Dependency ratio: 0.95

% female headed household: 7%

* Jordan Emergency Services and Social Resilience Project (JESSRP)
treatment: municipality where the World Bank has planned municipal service interventions,
control: municipality where World Bank does not have planned municipal service interventions.

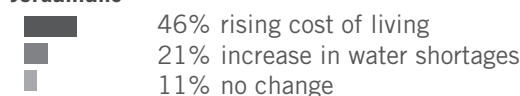

Information collected from 387 households (35 Syrian, 338 Jordanian, 14 other nationality) living in Rhab Al-Jadeedah municipality.

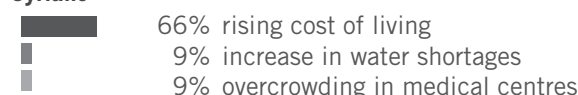

Perception of change in the community

Three most prominent changes observed since living in the community:

Jordanians

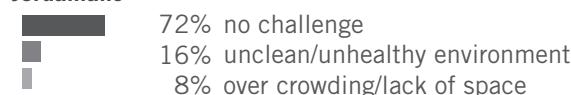

Syrians

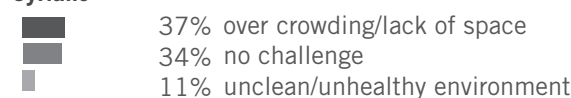

Housing

Three most prominent challenges faced in relation to current housing situation:

Jordanians

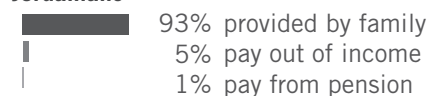

Syrians

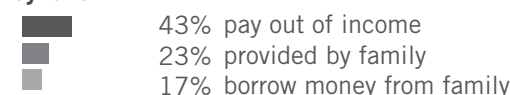

Three most common ways households cover the cost of housing:

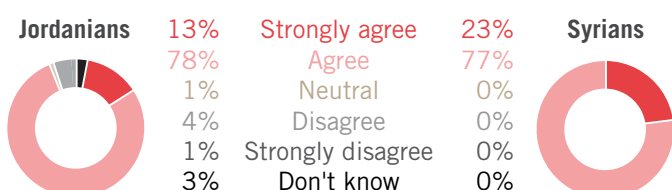

Jordanians

Syrians

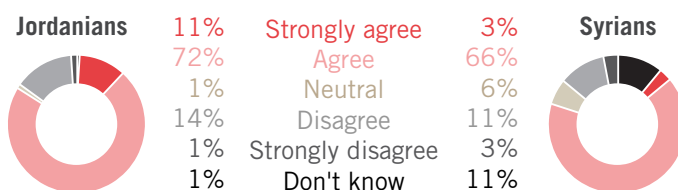

Increased housing prices have led to discontent within your community:

Water

Water shortages have led to discontent within your community:

Sanitation

Sanitation issues have led to discontent within your community:

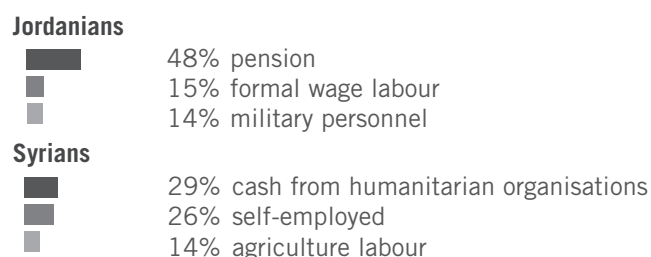

Livelihoods & Employment

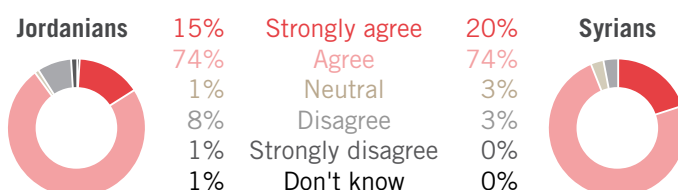

% of households with individuals seeking employment:

Jordanians: 36% Syrians: 54%

Three most prominent sources of income:

The current employment situation has led to discontent within your community:

Syrian Crisis Response

Baseline Factsheet: Sabha and Al-Dafianeh Municipality

Governorate: Al Mafrq

JESSRP Treatment / Control*: Control

% of Syrian households assessed: 19%

Average household size: 6.1

Dependency ratio: 0.97

% female headed household: 9%

* Jordan Emergency Services and Social Resilience Project (JESSRP)
treatment: municipality where the World Bank has planned municipal service interventions,
control: municipality where World Bank does not have planned municipal service interventions.

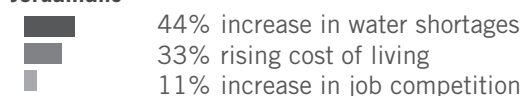

Information collected from 385 households (72 Syrian, 306 Jordanian, 7 other nationality) living in Sabha and Al-Dafianeh municipality.

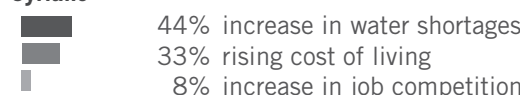

Perception of change in the community

Three most prominent changes observed since living in the community:

Jordanians

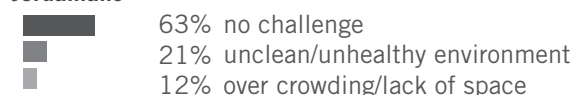

Syrians

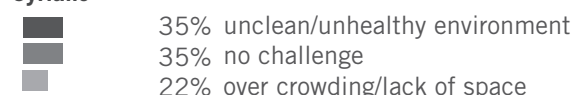

Housing

Three most prominent challenges faced in relation to current housing situation:

Jordanians

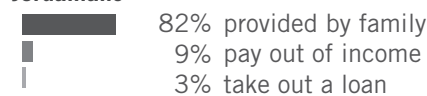

Syrians

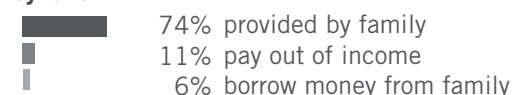

Three most common ways households cover the cost of housing:

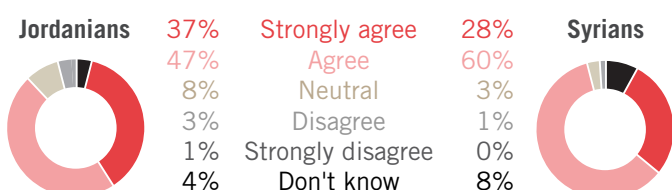

Jordanians

Syrians

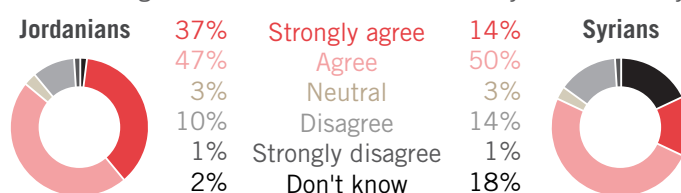

Increased housing prices have led to discontent within your community:

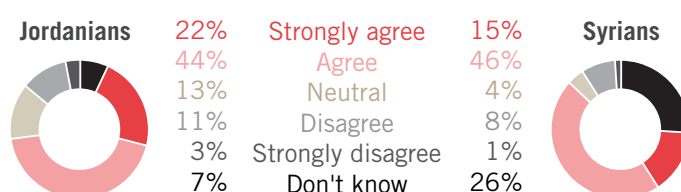

Water

Water shortages have led to discontent within your community:

Sanitation

Sanitation issues have led to discontent within your community:

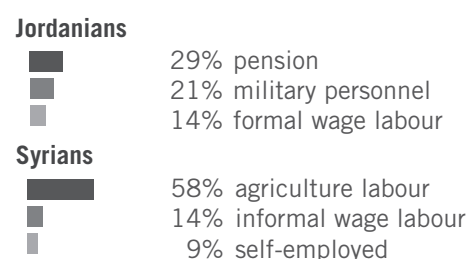

Livelihoods & Employment

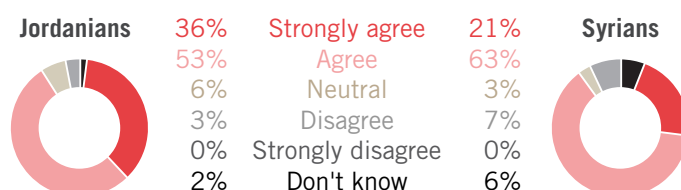

% of households with individuals seeking employment:

Jordanians: 35% Syrians: 36%

Three most prominent sources of income:

The current employment situation has led to discontent within your community:

Syrian Crisis Response

Baseline Factsheet: Sahel Horan Municipality

Governorate: Irbid

JESSRP Treatment / Control*: Treatment

% of Syrian households assessed: 12%

Average household size: 6.8

Dependency ratio: 1.02

% female headed household: 8%

* Jordan Emergency Services and Social Resilience Project (JESSRP)
treatment: municipality where the World Bank has planned municipal service interventions,
control: municipality where World Bank does not have planned municipal service interventions.

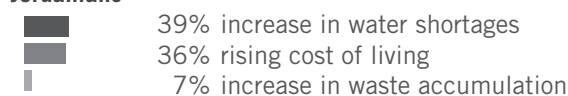

Information collected from 385 households (47 Syrian, 337 Jordanian, 1 other nationality) living in Sahel Horan municipality.

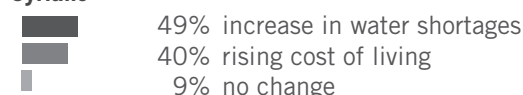

Perception of change in the community

Three most prominent changes observed since living in the community:

Jordanians

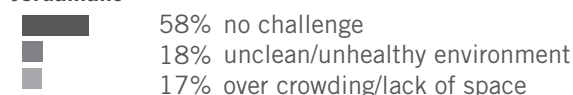

Syrians

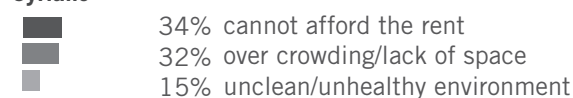

Housing

Three most prominent challenges faced in relation to current housing situation:

Jordanians

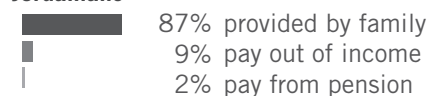

Syrians

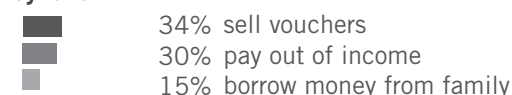

Three most common ways households cover the cost of housing:

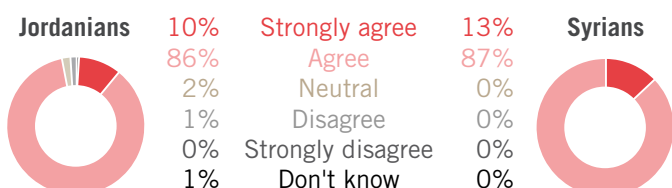

Jordanians

Syrians

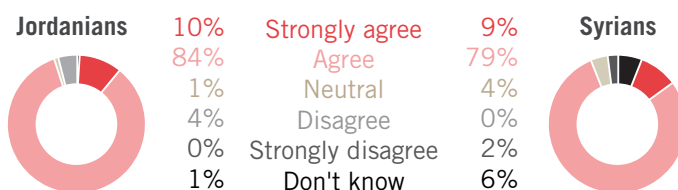

Increased housing prices have led to discontent within your community:

Water

Water shortages have led to discontent within your community:

Sanitation

Sanitation issues have led to discontent within your community:

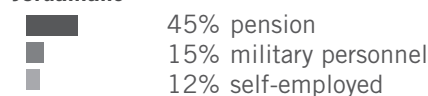

Livelihoods & Employment

% of households with individuals seeking employment:

Jordanians: 34% Syrians: 45%

Three most prominent sources of income:

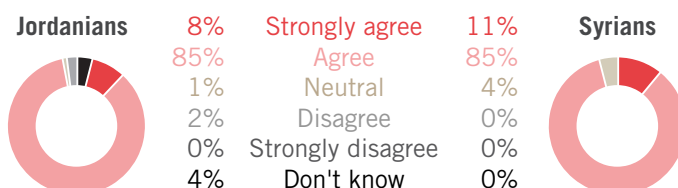

Jordanians

Syrians

The current employment situation has led to discontent within your community:

Syrian Crisis Response

Baseline Factsheet: Al-Serhan Municipality

Governorate: Al Mafrq

JESSRP Treatment / Control*: Treatment

% of Syrian households assessed: 24%

Average household size: 6.3

Dependency ratio: 1.03

% female headed household: 10%

* Jordan Emergency Services and Social Resilience Project (JESSRP)
treatment: municipality where the World Bank has planned municipal service interventions,
control: municipality where World Bank does not have planned municipal service interventions.

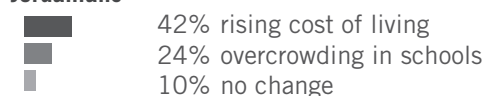

Information collected from 385 households (91 Syrian, 284 Jordanian, 10 other nationality) living in Al-Serhan municipality.

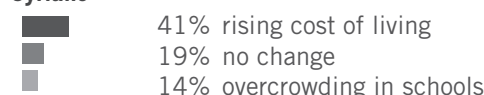

Perception of change in the community

Three most prominent changes observed since living in the community:

Jordanians

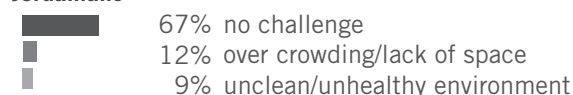

Syrians

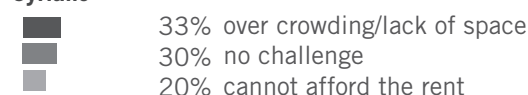

Housing

Three most prominent challenges faced in relation to current housing situation:

Jordanians

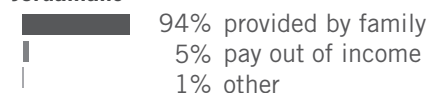

Syrians

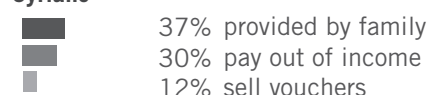

Three most common ways households cover the cost of housing:

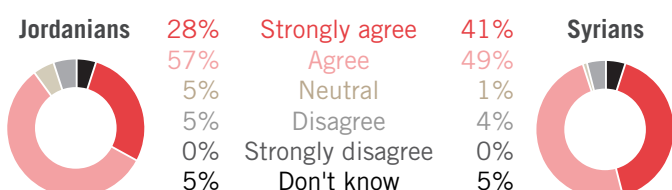

Jordanians

Syrians

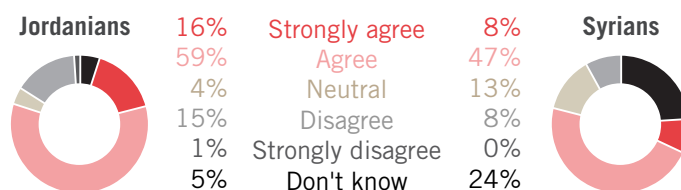

Increased housing prices have led to discontent within your community:

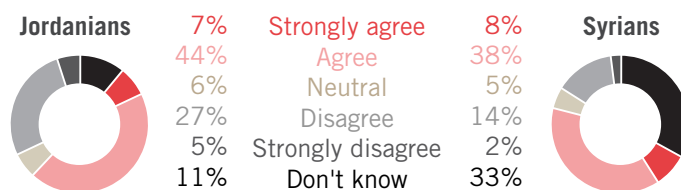

Water

Water shortages have led to discontent within your community:

Sanitation

Sanitation issues have led to discontent within your community:

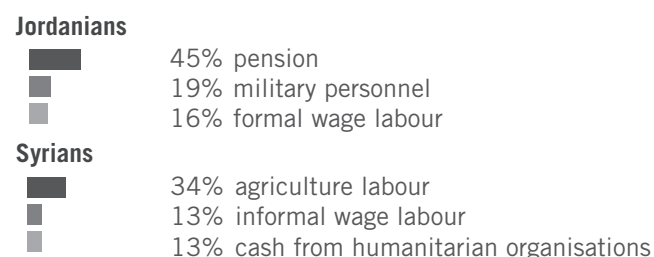

Livelihoods & Employment

% of households with individuals seeking employment:

Jordanians: 36% Syrians: 35%

Three most prominent sources of income:

The current employment situation has led to discontent within your community:

