Displacement

Zakirin Town Camp is an informal settlement in Kabul's District 17. Residents do not have permission to stay on this private land and, as a consequence they currently do not pay rent. All residents are from Tajik communities, returning from Peshawar, Pakistan.

In 2009, all 35 households established the settlement. Due to the small size, the site has not been able to expand since 2009.

Employment prospects in the surrounding area encourage residents to stay, despite a lack of water or education facilities. The land owner requests that residents leave the site and it is expected that the population will leave in 2017.
