Location Map

Displacement

This informal settlement is built on land owned by the Government of Afghanistan. Residents are not currently paying rent. The settlement is comprised of Pashtun communities, all of whom are returnees from the Northern Areas of Pakistan.

Of the total 76 households in the settlement, 66 established the site in 2005. For the following nine years the site remained stable, but in 2014 a new set of 10 households joined the settlement. Since the last arrival, there is no scope for Taimani Project Street 5 to expand.

Residents have access to education and health services. However, they reportedly intend to leave the settlement in the foreseeable future.
