WASH Site Profile - Leda A

Teknaf, Cox's Bazar, Bangladesh (May 2018) GPS Coordinates: 20.9697, 92.2455

SummarySiThis profile provides an overview of water, sanitation and hygiene (WASH) infrastructure within Leda A in Teknaf, Cox's Bazar. Primary data for the sixth round was collected between 22 April - 12 May 2018.1
#
Findings should be considered#

WASH Sector

Cox's Bazar

Site Overview		Key WASH Infrastructure		Loc
of individuals:	12,609	# of latrines:	249	Ukh
of households:	3,056	(% functional and safe ²):	(74%)
of shelters:	532	# of improved water sources: ³ (% functional):	34 (79%)
<pre># of individuals per shelter:</pre>	23.7	# of washrooms:	135
P

Location Map

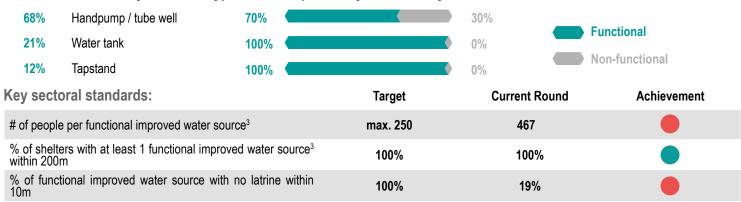

Water Access

is available on HDX.

indicative only. The full camp dataset

Three most commonly identified types of water points, by functionality:

Sanitation

Latrine characteristics:

Functionality and safety	Functionality
74%Functional (non-full) and safe226%Non-functional and / or unsafe	0	89% Functional (non-full)11% Non-functional
Safety	Lighting
80% Safe ² 20% Unsafe	0	0%With lights100%Without lights
Key sectoral standards:	Target	Current Round	Achievement
of people per functional (non-full) and safe latrine ²	max. 20	69
of people per functional (non-full) latrine	max. 20	57
of people per safe latrine ²	max. 20	64
$\%$ of shelters with at least one functional and safe latrine $^2\rm block$ within 50m	100%	79%

Targets based on long term WASH Sector Standards / Indicators for the Rohingya response, Sphere Minimum Standards as well as Department of Public Health and Environment (DPHE) Minimum Standards. Minimum standard/indicator reached, Teached, Teached, Teached, or within 25% of minimum standard reached, or within 26-50% of minimum standard reached, or within 26-50% of minimum standard reached, Teached, Teached, Standards of minimum standard reached, or within 26-50% of minimum standard reached, or within greater than 50% of minimum standard reached.

1 REACH enumerators conducted a full sweep of all sites and camps (as per boundaries defined by ISCG) and used a Kobo form to log all key infrastructure observed during this sweep. 2 'Safe' refers to fully covered latrines (i.e. a latrine with four walls, a roof and a lockable door).

3. This includes handpumps / tubewells, tapstands and water tanks.

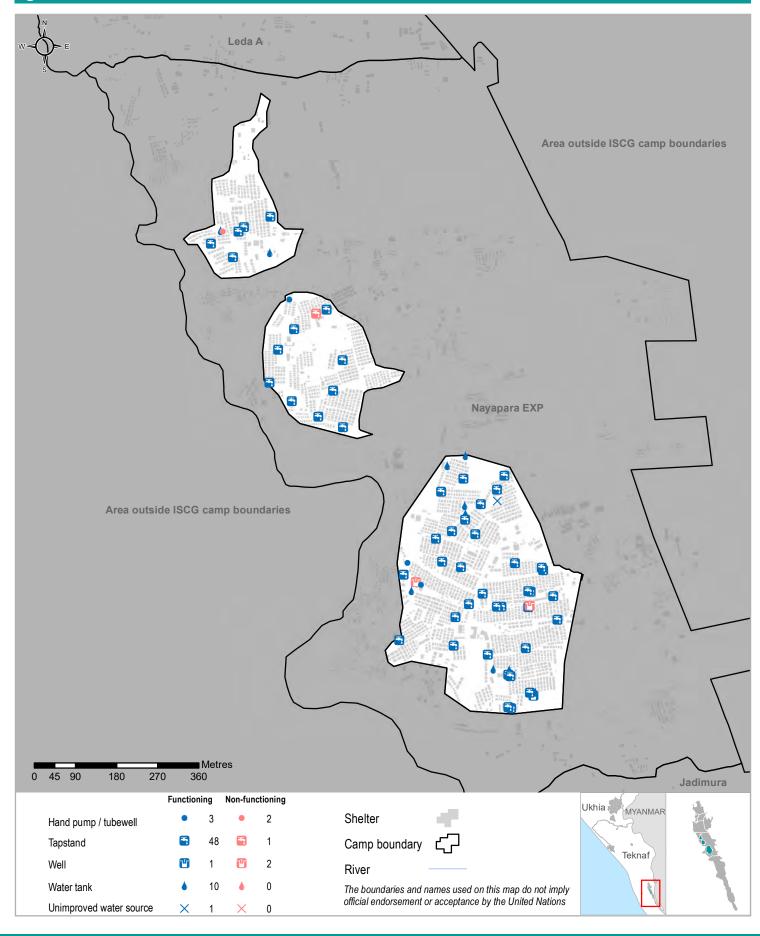

WASH Site Profile - Leda A Teknaf, Cox's Bazar, Bangladesh (May 2018) GPS Coordinates: 20.9697, 92.2455

Water Access

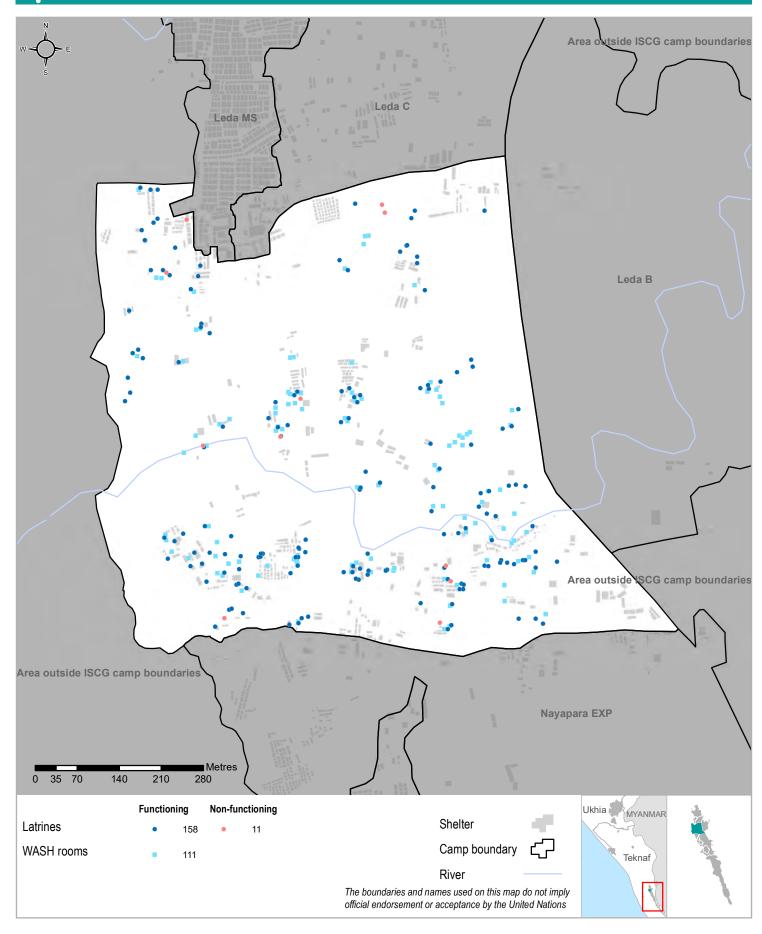

For more information, please contact REACH: bangladesh@reach-initiative.org

REACH An initiative of IMPACT Initiatives ACTED and UNOSAT

WASH Site Profile - Leda A Teknaf, Cox's Bazar, Bangladesh (May 2018) GPS Coordinates: 20.9697, 92.2455

Sanitation

For more information, please contact REACH: bangladesh@reach-initiative.org

REACH An initiative of IMPACT Initiatives ACTED and UNOSAT